

Student assistant (advanced, unexamined)

The Chair of Labor Economics (Prof. Dr. Ferdinand Rauch) is offering a student assistant position (around 160 hours, starting as soon as possible).

The candidate should understand written Swedish and Finnish. Candidates who only know one of these two languages can also be considered. The job consists of extracting information from written texts to a database.

Working hours are flexible.

Please send your applications as well as formal enquiries about the position to Christina Bommas (christina.bommas@awi.uni-heidelberg.de).
